SAVANNAH, Ga. - The Armstrong Atlantic State University women's basketball team set a school record for the most points scored in a single game with Sunday afternoon's 110-86 non-conference victory over visiting Coker College at Alumni Arena.

The Pirates (4-1) tallied 110 points, breaking the previous school record of 105 points set twice previously, in a 105-66 win over Tift on Feb. 2, 1985, and in a 105-68 win over Flagler on Nov. 26, 1985. It was also the first time that Armstrong has broken the century mark since a 103-61 win over USC Aiken on Feb. 13, 1999. Coker drops to 4-2 on the season with the loss.

Coker scored the first basket of the contest, but Armstrong went on an 8-0 run to take a lead it would never relinquish. Senior Tyler Carlson had 17 of her game-high 25 points in the first half as Armstrong built a 17-point lead, 36-19, with 7:52 left until the break. Coker closed to within eight, getting a buzzer-beating three-pointer from Jasmine Evans to make the score 50-42 at halftime.

Armstrong turned up the pressure in the second half, breaking open a

The Pirates scored 60 points in the second half, also breaking the school record for most points in a half of 58, set twice previously. The 110 points also set the Alumni Arena record for women's basketball, eclipsing the 104 points scored by Francis Marion on Feb. 27, 2010, against the Pirates. The combined 196 points were also the most in Alumni Arena history in a regulation women's basketball contest, breaking the record of 185 in FMU's 104-81 win over the Pirates on Feb. 27, 2010.

Armstrong placed six players in double figures, led by Carlson's career high-tying 25 points on 10-of-15 shooting from the floor, including 3-of-6 three-pointers and 2-of-2 from the free throw line. Senior Bryonna Davis added 20 points, five assists and three steals while Coney added a career-high 17 points. Freshman Brigitta Barta and junior Amber Howell each chipped in 12 points, junior Adoniah Lewis notched 10 and senior Hanna Bognar added seven blocked shots.

Coker placed five players in double figures, led by 19 points from Hailey Yohn and 18 points from Jessica Cohen. Tanesha Stenson went 12-of-18 from the free throw line en route to 14 points, while Priscilla Fenty added 13 points and Kelley Godbout chipped in 10.

"I think they [our seniors] executed the offense very well tonight, that was the difference," Armstrong head women's basketball coach Fala Bullock said. "We got some stops initially, we gave up a lot tonight, but overall I'm very happy with the production offensively."

Armstrong returns to action on Saturday, December 14th, visiting North Georgia for a 1:30 p.m. Peach Belt Conference contest that will be the league opener for both teams.
